ALL SORTS.

—Senator Williams is back from below.

—Lung Protectors at Thaxter's Drug Store.

—The Reno boomers haven't had enough energy yet to thaw out their city water pipe.

—Grand jurors attention is called to the change of time of meeting from Wednesday 22d to Thursday 23.

—The opium ring in San Francisco will soon be in as bad a fix as Josselyn if the Examiner keeps up its lick.

—Miss Barrett's pupils will give an entertainment at Odd Fellows' Hall on Longfellow's birthday. We acknowledge an invitation.

—By invitation of the W. C. T. U. the Rev. T. E. Simpson will lecture on "Temperance," at the Methodist Church this Tuesday evening.

—A man rode out on a bicycle yesterday to jump a claim on the North Carson Hill, and got there just in time to find a man driving the corner stakes.

—As a toilet article, Ayer's Hair Vigor stands unrivaled. It cleanses the scalp and removes dandruff, cures itching humors, restores the original color to faded and gray hair, and promotes its growth.

—Some lunatic has started the story, that the wires of the Electric Light Company will set everything a fire they touch. The wires are of the new patent and insulated by a non-conducting covering to prevent just such accidents.

—A farmer who does not want his neighbor's lean and hungry stock to break into his fields puts up good fences and keeps a dog or two. This is protection. When he neglects his fences, and they overrun and destroy his fields, this is free trade.

—No other Spring medicine has won for itself such universal confidence as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful combination of vegetable alternatives ever offered to the public, and is acknowledged by the medical profession to be the best blood purifier.

—Pioche Record; Some of our Mormon brethren are punishing the ungodly in Pioche by selling frozen potatoes. They fill the top of the bags with good potatoes, while the lower two-thirds of the bag contain frozen tubers. The Lord gives a Mormon a white mark every time he swindles a Gentile.

—The milk dealers of Virginia City have formed a "milk trust," by which they have agreed to sell no milk under a certain figure. Wonder if these are some of the men who were tried in the courts some years ago for feeding rotten garbage to cows and dealing out diseased swill milk to unfortunate patrons.

—The Prince of Wales is related to everybody. As a royal scion he can affectionately kiss more princesses than any living potentate. His elder sister will, or at least may, be the German Empress; the King of Greece is his brother-in-law; his sister-in-law is Empress of Russia; his mother-in-law is Queen of Denmark; Prince Waldemar is his kinsman; he is, in a word, the one bright spot in a divided and harassed Europe. His arrival in Paris must, therefore, always be a big and happy event.

Relief Corps Meeting.

The regular meeting of Custer Relief Corps No. 15, will be held this evening. A full attendance is desired as business of importance will be transacted.

MARTHA J. MURPHY,
President.

A Senator Paired.

Senator Westerfield has wedded Mary R. Sims, of Dayton. The APPEAL hopes that a "call of the Senate" will always find him within reach.

CLARK JUMPERS.

They were Out in Full Force Sunday.

All the old abandoned locations on North Carson and Sugar Loaf hills were raided last Sunday by the claim jumpers. A good many old locations were jumpable because the locators had not complied with the law and recorded their locations in the County Recorder's office.

Some people think that the mere placing of a notice in an old oyster can and piling some rocks about it, is sufficient. If a copy of this notice is not recorded in 30 days, any other person who is a citizen of the United States over 21 years old can relocate the same claim.

On Saturday, Chas. Colburn, Heber Holman and James McDonald, climbed to the face of the upper tunnel of the North Carson and nailed a location notice on the door of the tunnel. They came in town and recorded the location, when the representatives of the North Carson people went out at night well armed and took possession of the works.

On Sunday an APPEAL representative climbed to the upper tunnel to get an idea of the situation, and ran up against the muzzle of a shotgun protruding from the door of the cabin. On making known his peaceful mission he was allowed to chat with the man in the cabin, who said he had been ordered to begin operations on the mine and clear out the lower tunnel. His fortress, however, was the upper tunnel, which is about a thousand feet above the plain, and where one man could hold back a regiment of men climbing the hill. He said that the company had always done its assessment work, and that the jumping was simply ridiculous. There were more men in the lower tunnel, and no more jumping parties would be tolerated in that section. Yesterday the following dispatch was received:

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.

The Carson Appeal:—The work at Carson mine has been performed every year. In fact, a great deal more than according to law.

B. F. DAHL,

Pres. North Carson Cons. Mine.

Stewart's Opinion.

"I believe that Blaine is entirely sincere in refusing to be a candidate for the nomination. He could not have written such a letter and been otherwise than sincere. I believe there are men in the party who could poll more votes for President than Blaine. I do not like to discriminate among who are eligible as candidates of the party, but it seems to me that General Sheridan—if the convention should see fit to nominate him—would be a very strong man before the people. He is a native of Ohio, and a big man intellectually. Blaine is very popular on the Pacific Coast, but any good Republican nominated on a protection platform will carry the full Republican vote of California and Nevada."

Destructive Cyclone.

Chicago, Feb. 19.—A cyclone struck Mt. Vernon today. The town was virtually destroyed, a number of lives lost and many persons injured. The cyclone struck the town about 2:50 A.M., sweeping around in a half circle and leveling half the town. The remainder of the place caught fire. The latest report shows 29 dead and about 100 injured.

The Truckee Fish Ladders.

Deputy Fish Commissioner Todman of California informs the APPEAL that the fish ladders have been put in all the dams on the Truckee river from Tahoe City to Verdi, under the orders of the Commissioners, but that the river between Verdi and Reno is wholly neglected. Here is something for Fish Commissioner Cary to see attended to at once.

HOW HE WON.

William Beach, Hanlan's Conqueror, Tells How He Did It.

The recent exploit of Mr. William Beach, leaves no doubt that he is the handiest man in the world with the sculls. The ease with which he outrowed his opponent, the supposed invincible Ned Hanlan, shows that in form, stroke, and muscular development, adapted to sculling, he has no equal.

Although an Australian by virtue of residence, Beach was born in Surrey, England, in 1851, and removed with his parents to New South Wales in 1854. He was brought up to his father's trade, and, while toiling like a young Vulcan in the smithy, unconsciously developed that magnificent physique which has since brought him world-wide distinction. When about twenty-three years of age, Beach commenced rowing on the Illawarra Lakes against local competitors, and from the outset kept winning until gradually handicapped out of all races. Following are his chief aquatic performances while in Australia:

December, 1880.—Won Beach's handicap, Wollongong Bay.
January, 1881.—Second Pyrmont Regatta, won by Pearce.
January, 1881.—Second National Regatta, won by D. McDonald.
February, 1881.—Beat E. McDonald, Parramatta river.
March, 1881.—Beat George Solomon.
May, 1881.—Beat Charles Reynolds.
October, 1881.—Second Parramatta Regatta, won by E. C. Laycock.
December, 1881.—Beat T. Clifford, Parramatta river.
January, 1882.—National Regatta, swamped, won by Messenger.
March, 1882.—Newhere, Grafton Regatta, won by D. McDonald.
March, 1882.—Won Wollongong Bay Regatta prize.
December 7.—Won James Hunt's trophy, Parramatta river.
April 2, 1883.—Beaten by E. Trickett, championship (first time).
April 15, 1883.—Beat E. Trickett, championship.
April 17, 1883.—Beat E. Trickett, championship.
April 17, 1884.—Beat E. Trickett, championship.
August 16, 1884.—Beat E. Hanlan, championship world.
March 17, 1885.—Beat T. Clifford, championship world.
March 27, 1885.—Beat E. Hanlan, championship world.
December 19, 1885.—Beat N. Matterson.
November 26, 1887.—Beat E. Hanlan, championship world.

Mr. Beach's system of training includes a run of two or three miles before breakfast, a walk of six or seven miles afterwards, and a pull over the course. After dinner comes another two mile walk and a second pull over the course, during which he rows himself right out, eases off, and then pulls again. A long walk concludes the day.

A man under such physical strain, even though he be a giant, must often feel the failure of his strength to his will, and, powerful though he be, it is not surprising that Mr. Beach candidly states that during his training, previous to meeting Edward Hanlan the second time for the world's championship, his trainer bought for him Warner's safe cure and he says: "I was agreeably astonished at the great benefit which followed its use." While in training he finds this the best possible aid to a command of all his natural powers, because it does not first goad and afterwards weaken the system, but acts in perfect harmony with nature's laws.

Mr. Beach's experience is confirmed by the experience of many thousands of athletes all over the world. Under the great physical strain they break down and die prematurely, because they have not been able to keep disease away from their kidneys and liver, whence most diseases originate. Mr. Beach recognizes this necessity, and has sagacity enough to use the only scientific specific for that purpose. He has not only the prestige of victory, but the prestige of a true scientific method of training and keeping up his wonderful physical condition. If he did not voluntarily give up the championship, it would so doubt be a long time before it was wrested from him.

A SERIOUS FALL.

Frank McCullough Breaks Two Ribs.

On Saturday last Warden Frank McCullough, of the State Prison, was at the house of Mr. Cobb, his father-in-law, where he attempted to hang some pictures. He slipped and fell from the step, ladder falling against the edge of a piece of furniture, and broke two ribs on his left side. He was taken home to the State Prison, where he lies suffering a great deal, and Dr. Lee does not expect him to be out for some weeks.
